About

Patrick Keane is a comedian, writer, and author based in Los Angeles and one of the hardest working comedians in the game. He's been doing stand-up for over twenty years and has performed everywhere from comedy clubs to cruise ships to college campuses around the world. His style is dry, sarcastic, and observational — think Bill Murray if Bill Murray grew up in the Midwest, played football in Montana, and spent a year in Japan before deciding to tell jokes for a living. Patrick's two Dry Bar Comedy specials, Long Love the Keane and Fear of Flying, showcase his unique perspective. He's also the author of The Patrick Keane Collection and hosts the weekly podcast Keane On Things.

"I try not to be funny — and that usually works."
